

JANINE MCNALLY

JANINEMCNALLY Passionate about today's children

Short Bio

Originally a high school teacher in her native Australia, Janine McNally has partnered together with her husband for many years of pastoral ministry. Janine graduated with a Master of Theology degree from Dallas Theological Seminary and is now pursuing her doctorate at Grace School of Theology. She passionately believes in reaching kids for Jesus and enlightening leaders and parents about Generation Alpha. Janine and Gary have been married for thirty years and live in Jensen Beach, Florida. They are the parents of three grown children: Hannah (married to Kevin), Jonathan, and Jami. She directs the operations of Grace4Kidz, a non-profit dedicated to providing gospel centered resources for children."

Medium Bio

Originally a high school teacher in her native Australia, Janine McNally has partnered together with her husband for many years of pastoral ministry. Janine graduated with a Master of Theology degree from Dallas Theological Seminary and is now pursuing her doctorate at Grace School of Theology.

Janine McNally is the founder and director of Grace4Kidz, a nonprofit dedicated to producing quality gospel-centered resources for children's ministry leaders. In her spare time, she is a curriculum writer, an adjunct professor, and a doctoral student at Grace School of Theology and has just completed her first book "When You See Fireflies. Equipping Parents and Leaders to Minister Effectively to Generation Alpha" (Release Date: May 2023). She passionately believes in reaching kids for Jesus and enlightening leaders and parents about Generation Alpha.

She has been involved for over 40 years in children's ministry as well as pastoral and church planting ministry alongside her husband. She passionately believes that now is the time to reach kids for Jesus and that children's ministry is the most important ministry in the church. Janine and Gary have been married for thirty years and live in Jensen Beach, Florida. They are the parents of three grown children: Hannah (married to Kevin), Jonathan, and Jami.

Long Bio

Originally a high school Math teacher in her native Australia, Janine McNally moved to the United States to attend Dallas Theological Seminary, graduating with top honors with her Master of Theology degree as well as her M.R.S. when she met and married her sweetheart. They moved around the country from New Jersey, to Oregon and back, working in church planting and pastoral ministry for many years. Most recently, Janine served as Director of the Children's Ministry at a church in Colorado.

In 2021, Janine began Grace4Kidz, a non-profit company that works to produce excellent gospel-centered resources for Children's Ministry leaders. She also serves as an Adjunct Professor of Ministry and a Research Fellow at Grace School of Theology while she is pursuing her Doctor of Ministry degree.

Janine has been involved in teaching academically for many years, while she was in seminary, leading and teaching youth and women's ministry, teaching elementary through high school in home-school communities, as well as being a conference speaker, writing curriculum, a blog, and publishing articles.

She has just completed her first book "When You See Fireflies. Equipping Parents and Leaders to Minister Effectively to Generation Alpha" (Release Date: May 2023). Over the past year, Janine has presented the message of this book at a growing number of podcasts, Christian conferences, and seminaries. She passionately believes in reaching kids for Jesus and enlightening leaders and parents about Generation Alpha.

Gary and Janine have been married for thirty years and are the parents of three grown children: Hannah (married to Kevin Fordred), Jonathan (age 26), and Jami (age 17). They live in Jensen Beach, Florida, where Janine writes and directs the operations of Grace4Kidz.

Contact

Email: janine@Grace4Kidz.org

Phone: 303-204-1244

Address: 357 Nettles Blvd.

Jensen Beach, FL 34947

www.JanineMcNally.com